Caught in His Own Trap.

Dec. 10.—One of the most curious had a most dramatic solution today. A young man named Baratta, a millionaire, and a famous sportsman, was invited by the Chevalier Vecchio, an organizer of shows, to his villa out of town. On the pretext that he wanted to see some old pictures, Baratta was seized and taken to a room where he was locked up. He was then left the villa, after having an accomplice to put Baratta to death by drowning the dog, in a bath, and carry the body away from the villa, so as to give Vecchio a chance to prove his alibi. But the heart of Vecchio's accomplice softened and he let Baratta at liberty, and Vecchio who read in the newspapers that his plot had been discovered, disappeared. The police thought he had gone to America. Today, however, it was learned that Vecchio had committed suicide by shooting while driving in a carriage on the famous Monte Pincio drive.

How to Prevent Croup.

It will be good news to the mothers of small children to learn that croup can be prevented. The first sign of croup is hoarseness. A day or two before the attack the child becomes hoarse. This is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the rough cough appears, and it will dispel all symptoms of croup. In this way all danger and anxiety may be avoided. This remedy is used by many thousands of mothers and has never been known to fail. It is, in fact, the only remedy that can always be depended upon and that is pleasant to take. For sale by Woods & Orme.

Woman Killed by Train.

New York, Dec. 8.—In the closing of a woman killed by an express train rushing through Mt. Vernon, has been found money to the amount of nearly $2,000 in gold and greenbacks. The victim was identified as Mrs. Mary McLeod of New Rochelle, who was a miser. She had been carrying the money and carrying it for 25 years.

EDUCATED WIVES.

So long as women were absolutely ignorant men could pass as wise. Small capitalists, however, growing mind of woman life, the mind of man with two great forces—heridity and sex attraction. Large-brained mothers make better men, and the sweetheart who is wise as well as kind can do wonderful things with her lover. Lord Chesterfield's advice to his son is apt on this point. He strongly urges him to marry a woman who is wise, as well as rich, handsome and well born; "for," says he, "you will find that nothing is more fulsome than a she-f fool."

The Greeks would not have educated wives, owing to prejudice, tradition and general error; but as they grew capable of more pleasure than the primitive sex relation allows, they sought it outside of marriage.

It is wonderful how long a piece of idiocy will stick in the human brain. Never was a more splendid development of some mental qualities than in Athens, yet there this antique ignorance remained bedded in the fertile intellectual soil like a boulder in a garden.

Cured Paralysis.

W. S. Bally, P. O. True, Tex., writes: "My wife had been suffering five years with paralysis in her arm, when I was persuaded to use Ballard's Snow Liniment, which cured her all right. I have also used it for old sores, frost-bites and skin eruptions. It does the work." 25c, 50c, $1 at Woods & Orme's drugstore.

Risks Life to Win a Bet.

Chicago, Dec. 8.—Clad in a rubber swimming suit, and armed with a paddle with which to ward off ice cakes, Capt. Sidney Hinman, an Australian, has lowered himself in the Chicago river just below the Rush street bridge and swam with the icy current down to Madison street bridge, a distance of nearly a mile, winning $500 from Geo. W. Turnbull, a contractor, who had bet that he would not dare attempt the feat.

Mr. Turnbull was at every one of the bridges as his friend went by and had a cab awaiting him when he emerged from the icy swim at Madison street, cheered by an admiring crowd.

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not, for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Maudie Bush

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

WINE OF CARDUI

PADUCAH IN DARKNESS.

Paducah, Dec. 8.—The city was left in darkness and without water all last night, the result of the breaking of a valve at the Water Company plant. The break was repaired this morning and all is now running smoothly. The Illinois Central had to run engines to the river front and pump water with the city fire engines. The electric plant had to secure water by stringing a hose from the fire engine to the river, a distance of several squares.

A glass or two of water taken half an hour before breakfast will usually keep the bowels regular. Harsh cathartics should be avoided. When a purgative is needed, take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are mild and gentle in their action. For sale by Woods & Orme.

Kentucky News.

Lang Bros., Druggists, Paducah, Ky., write: "We sell more of Dr. Mendenhall's Chill and Fever Cure than all other remedies combined, having retailed over 700 bottles in one season. The physicians here prescribe it and persons who use it once will have no other." Children like it.

FARM FOR SALE.

102 3-4 acres, 1 1-2 miles from court house, on Salem road; new house of six rooms; good barns; good stables; well watered. Land all tillable; 10 acres in timber. A splendid farm in a good community. Price reasonable. O. H. Paris, Marion, Ky.

FARM FOR SALE OR LEASE.

We call attention to our find of glass sand, a bed 60 feet deep, covering at least five acres, situated about 1 1/2 mile from depot at Marion, Ky. This property is easily mined; plenty of water in easy reach. It is in line with the zinc and spar mines, and only about 27 mile from the Lurline Mines. Experienced glass makers have pronounced it, by actual test, to be the best quality. Plenty of coal near by. Here is a fine location for a glass factory, as the raw material is here. Also a fine location for waterworks; a lake covering 10 acres easily made by a dam 40 feet high, by 150 yards long. Enough to supply any factory and the town of Marion, which is in need of water all the time. The lake would be supplied by living water and a drainage of 75 acres. If interested, and further information is wanted, write LEMUEL CLARK, Marion, Ky.

To improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Mr. J. H. Seitz, of Detroit, Mich., says, "They restored my appetite when impaired, relieved me of a bloated feeling and caused a pleasant and satisfactory movement of the bowels." There are people in this community who need just such a medicine. For sale by Woods & Orme. Every box warranted.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.

Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued for some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation. St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901. Ballard's Horehound Syrup would have saved him. 25c, 50c and $1 at Woods & Orme's drugstore.
